High School Board To Purchase $30,000 Property

More Space Needed To Accomodate Additional Students

To afford the rapidly increasing number of Jefferson Union high school students more space for classrooms when the fall term opens, the high school board of trustees announced, Monday, their intention of purchasing the building and property belonging to the Pantaleoni Brothers Garage, 7046 Mission street.

Purchase price for the building and property which adjoin the school, has been set at $30,000. Public hearing, when the deal will be closed, will be Wednesday, August 5, at 8 p. m. in the office of the high school district superintendent.

Commenting on the purchase, Remi Sanders, chairman of the board, said that it has not yet been fully decided what specific classes will occupy the garage building when school opens. There has been an urgent need for more classrooms at the high school in the past school year. While a new building on the grounds was being considered, the board decided on the purchase of the garage building, because of the purchase freeze on all building materials since the war.

Pantaleoni Brothers will still occupy a portion of the building to be used for automobile repairs, it was indicated.

U. S. O. Campaign Nears Close Here

Canvassing the entire city for funds in America's first wartime USO drive, the Daly City committee is winding up the annual campaign, this week. Contributions from this community for the past seven weeks will be turned over to the United Service Organizations, soon.

On Tuesday, when the most recent figures were announced, Joe Firpo, treasurer of the committee, announced that $1141.99 had been collected for the USO. However, this did not include the money collected in tin cans placed in business houses throughout the city, and it was expected that the tin can collections would boost the total considerably.

A collection also was still due to come from the Lake Merced Golf Course where a big USO Benefit golf tournament was held, last week. The proceeds of the tournament were split between the Daly City and San

Daly City Knows There's A War

On land, on the sea, and in the air, the young men of Daly City are giving their best to see Uncle Sam through to Victory. On the fighting fronts and in the busy training centers this community is represented. Daly City knows there's a war! She knows it because her men are "in there scrapping."

Typical of the home boys bent on giving Hirohito et al a bad time, is Robert N. McCune, one of the aviation cadet pilots finishing up advanced training at Ellington field, Texas, and soon to be taking their places in America's bomb-to-kill campaign against the Axis. They will receive their wings as pilots in the Army air forces, on Independence Day. They are the Jimmy Doolittles, the Colin P. Kellys of the future, the men who will pilot waves of avenging bombers over Berlin, Tokyo, and Rome—soon! The plane pictured above is a wicked-looking AT-9 twin motored advanced training plane. McCune, whose home is at 82 Peoria street, is well-versed in the flying of these sharp nosed, hump-backed craft, which have all the characteristics of the giant bombers he will soon be piloting.

Council Meets At Adjourned Session

In an adjourned meeting of the city council, Monday, the council authorized an expenditure of $428.50 for purchase of supplies and additional fixtures for the two new firehouses in Daly City.

A motion passed by the council provided for the transfer of David Cafferata, employed in the city street department, to a salary on a monthly basis. Another city appointment which was made was that of Peter Oyhanabal to janitorial duties.

A motion was passed for the payment of claims in the amount of $188.25 in the city clerk's demand and warrant ledger.

Japanese Intern Smith In Shanghai

Donald Smith, Daly City youth reported lost at sea with the Matson freighter Malama over four months ago, is safe! With other crew members, he is interned by the Japanese in Shanghai, according to information received here by his mother, Mrs. Robert A. Smith, 258 Templeton avenue.

Although Mrs. Smith has not received direct word from her son, she was informed of his safety by the United States Coast Guard in Washington.

The Malama was carrying a cargo of war materials to New

Militia Musters In Local Company

Company B of Daly City, local military division which was recently formed for service for the duration, was officially mustered into the Seventeenth Regiment, California Militia, last Wednesday, according to the local commanding officer, Captain Jack Hill, 398 North Parkview avenue.

Formation of the company in Daly City was forwarded through Captain Hill's efforts. He was previously a member of the San Francisco regiment, but a demand was found for further protection against a possible invasion in Daly City to the extent that he organized Company B. Captain Hill was recently awarded his captaincy in the state militia, having formerly been a lieutenant. Fifty men compose the local

These Aerial Axis Busters Have Date With Destiny

Aerial Axis busters, new pilots for the Army Air Forces, on Independence Day Eve, will win their wings at seven Advanced Flying Schools in the Gulf Coast Air Force Training Center.

One hundred thirty-six flyers from California are in the seventh post-Pearl Harbor class to complete the rigorous thirty-two week flying schedule of 200 hours aloft, 400 ground school hours. Among them is Robert N. McCune, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl McCune, 82 Peoria street.

No figures were released on the total number of pilots in the group.

"It's our largest class thus far," Major General H. R. Harmon, commanding the 40 school-training center revealed. "We'll be able to say the same thing about future classes too."

Better Give Up That Floor Mat Now

Would you rather give up the rubber floor mat on your car now or would you rather wait a few months and give up all five tires on your car so that you won't be able to use it at all?

This is only one small instance of the many sacrifices which could easily be made in aiding the nation's scrap rubber drive, according to administrators in Northern California and partic-

Tomorrow's Last Day For Industrial Users

Only today and tomorrow remain for local industrial sugar users to register for their next two month's supply of sugar, according to John Dell, Daly City rationing administrator.

Proprietors of local business houses which use sugar are required to register at the District Rationing office, in the basement of the South San Francisco post office, corner of Miller street and Linden avenue. Registration will close tomorrow afternoon instead of Saturday since the latter is a legal holiday.

Applications from home canners will resume, Monday, and all applicants were asked to bring a bill of sale showing the amount of fruit to be canned.

City Departments To Observe Fourth

All offices in the city hall, with the exception of the police department, will be closed, Saturday, to celebrate Independence Day.

Both the Colma and Daly City branches of the Bank of America will be closed for the Fourth.

Reginald Selby Gets Promotion

Reginald Selby, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Selby, 108 Los Olivos avenue, received his second promotion in less than a year in the army recently when he was raised to the rank of corporal technician.

Selby was inducted into the army from Daly City, last October, and was assigned to the artillery branch. He serves his corps unit as a communication specialist in radio. Prior to induction, Selby was a conductor on the Market Street railway.

Ferguson Attends Denver Convention

Among the more than 1200 school teachers and officials from all parts of the United States attending the eightieth annual convention of the National Education association in Denver, this week, is James Ferguson, principal of Jefferson Union high school.

The educators are studying ways to meet what spokesmen for the group describe as "the greatest problems in education's

Law Officers Find Another Firebug

Further investigation by county and city law officers of the youthful arsonists who destroyed three buildings in Daly City and Colma, revealed that a third boy, an 11 year old colored lad of Colma, was also involved.

His partners in crime are two boys, one 14 years old and the other 11, who are being held by county juvenile authorities in Redwood City. The two were caught as they were leaving the

Fire Department Gets Ready For Open House

Public Urged To Inspect New Apparatus, Houses

Three new firefighting units and two new, streamlined firehouses will feature an open house inspection of the Daly City Fire department by the public, Sunday, July 12.

With the filing of the notice of completion of the firehouses, and the two big 600-gallon pumper trucks and the squad wagon now a familiar part of Daly City's fire protection, Chief A. P. Chesney announced that the department is now ready to be inspected by Daly City citizens. All local people were reminded to set aside Sunday, July 12, to visit the firehouses. Firemen will be present in uniform at all company firehouses, and the buildings will be open all day.

The two new firehouses belong to Companies 2 and 4. Company 2 is located at the corner of Santa Barbara and Parkview avenues, while Company 4 is situated on the corner of Roosevelt and Peoria streets. Other companies which will be open for inspection are Company 1, 188 Santa Barbara avenue; and Company 6, Werner street.

July 15 Deadline For Registration

Daly City voters must register by midnight, Thursday, July 16, to be able to vote in the county primary election, August 25, according to W. H. Augustus, county clerk.

All persons who have moved or changed their names since last registering or those who have moved into the county and have not yet registered as voters must see that they are registered on or before the deadline.

Those persons whose registrations were cancelled for failure to vote at both the primary and November elections in 1940 and have not since re-registered should now re-register.

For the convenience of the voters in this area, county registration deputies are listed as follows:

In Daly City, City Clerk B. C. Ross, City hall; Mrs. Alice Braun-

Daly City Gets 75 More Masks

Volunteers Busy With Basic Training

Seventy-five more gas masks were allotted to the Daly City Civilian Defense Council from the national OCD, and Arthur J. Bodien, chairman of the local unit, announced that the council would decide, this week, which volunteers would be issued the masks.

Practically all of the free time of Daly City's volunteers is currently taken up with the ninety hours of basic training required to keep the masks. First aid classes, the largest training program required by civilian defense, are increasing each week with new volunteers. Twenty-five air raid wardens, the majority of whom are lady wardens, start the standard course in first aid tonight. R. L. Crane jr., first aid chairman and director of training on the local council, indicated Monday, however, a

A Message From Pearl Harbor

(Editor's Note: This letter was read by R. L. Crane Jr. at the graduation exercises of the Jefferson Elementary School district in June.)

To you the school superintendent, the principal, the teachers of Crocker Avenue school, to you good people of Daly City—I send greetings and salutations. To you boys and girls of the graduating class of Crocker school, I send you felicitations. With gladness in my heart, would that I be there tonight to see you, the future young men and young ladies of Daly City receive the reward for your eight years of work, thus arriving at the first step in your careers of becoming young Americans.

It is because I want you young people to continue living and enjoying our way of living, that we are here today. I was in Pearl Harbor December 7th all day and that night in the midst of the biggest sneak attack on our flag that was ever made in our national existence. Each and everyone of us was ready to die for our good U. S. A., and many did. It is not in a vindictive mood that I say that now, in the air, on the waters and on the land we are ready to receive them in fair fight man to man, the only way Americans fight. This time if they dare come we will see to it that they receive their share of fight the boys of Bataan, Corregidor and the Battle of the Coral Sea gave them.

As I am proud of all you future citizens of Daly City I am also proud of my own flesh and blood. So in conclusion may I be allowed to say this:

To you Mary Gloria your Daddy now speaks. From far off Hawaii I am there in spirit by your side wishing you happiness, success and health. Congratulations, Mary Gloria.

To you all, we are in a fight! So let us all, with all our might shout—ATTA OLD FIGHT!

Julius F. Castelan,
Honolulu, T. H.

It's common sense to be thrifty. If you save you are thrifty. War Bonds help you to save and help to save America. Buy your ten percent every pay day.

The Army and the Navy may claim their share of sweethearts, but lovely Maureen O'Hara prefers the Marines. You really can't blame her, when she has a handsome "leatherneck" like John Payne in the new 20th Century-Fox Technicolor action hit due tonight at the Daly City theatre, "To The Shores Of Tripoli."

George E. Brenner's Indian Episode Accorded Big Ovation At Park Concert

Acclaimed by music authorities to be the only opera of its kind ever attempted by American composers, "Princess Omaha," an Indian episode from a new Indian Opera composed by George Brenner, conductor of the Daly City Band, received such a hearty ovation from five thousand spectators at Golden Gate park in San Francisco, that a repeat performance is planned.

Under the direction of Ralph Murray, the Golden Gate Park band rendered Brenner's composition in the initial performance, Sunday, June 21, at the San Francisco park, and, another performance is being planned after several requests were made.

Nearing completion of the opera, Brenner has worked on the composition for a number of years. Indian music and songs which date back for more than two hundred years have been incorporated in Brenner's composition. Authentic historical data pertaining to Indian ceremonies and tribal rites has been obtained by the local composer through the cooperation of the Indian department in Washington and the Ethnological department of Harvard university.

Brenner has long been affiliated with music activities in Daly City, having organized the Daly City Band fourteen years ago. Sponsored by the Colma Vista Grande Aerie No. 1848, Fraternal Order of Eagles in the beginning, the band has been under the auspices of the city for the past twelve years. Brenner has arranged concerts and musical programs in Daly City for a number of years. Most recent of the band's ventures was Sunday's Grand Patriotic Concert for the USO campaign, which was staged Sunday afternoon at Marchbank park.

scene of their last fire, a blacksmith shop on El Camino Real in the town of Colma. The shop belonged to Police Chief Joseph Cavalli, and was completely destroyed by the fire. The boys were caught by Officer Lloyd Minehan of the state highway patrol.

Police Chief James G. Reardon, after questioning the boys and conferring with County Juvenile Officer Francis Robinson, Monday, announced that the youngsters have confessed to setting four fires and turning in several false alarms. The fires which the boys admitted setting, in addition to the blacksmith shop, were a warehouse at the Daniels and Pancoast Monument company in Colma, a cottage on Junipero Serra boulevard in Daly City, and a residence on Cortland avenue in San Francisco.

Technicolor Epic Opens At Daly City

The smashing story of the U. S. Marine Corps and what it takes to turn out a fighting "leatherneck" has been brilliantly brought to the screen in 20th Century-Fox's Technicolor epic, "To The Shores Of Tripoli," which opens tonight at the Daly City theatre.

The Darryl F. Zanuck production is made to order for every patriotic American, and is a credit to those men who fought their way to glorious posterity at Wake Island.

There is nothing more heroically traditional than the spirit of the Marines, and "To The Shores Of Tripoli" shows us what makes them that way. Most of the action takes place at the San Diego Marine Base and it is there that John Payne, a raw recruit, is turned into a first class fighting man by Sergeant Randolph Scott. For the romantic interest, which no Marine would be without, Maureen O'Hara has been placed in the role of a lovely Navy nurse. Naturally, John succumbs to her charms and Irish temper. A know-it-all attitude on his part threatens to keep him from becoming a true "devil-dog," but when the finale comes, John is up in front as a true son of the Marine forces.

The acting by Payne, Miss O'Hara and Scott leaves nothing to be desired and the rest of the cast which includes such top performers as Nancy Kelly, William Tracy, Maxie Rosenbloom, Henry Morgan, Edmund MacDonald, Russell Hicks and Minor Watson is first-rate.

military group, and there is still an urgent demand for many more, Captain Hill said. Weekly military drills are held at Jefferson Union high school athletic field every Wednesday evening, beginning at 7:30 p. m. All local men who are interested in the California Militia are asked to apply during the weekly drills at the high school field to Captain Hill.

From the ranks of recruits, non-commissioned officers are being trained at special drills on Mondays at 7:30 p. m.

Those who have already enlisted are making attempts to secure more recruits for the organization. An unusually large number of recruits were obtained by Sidney R. Watt, 718 Templeton avenue, who signed up ten recruits. Watt plans to form a section of the militia in his residential section. Twelve men are needed to make up a section.

Wasted money is wasted lives. Don't waste precious lives. Every dollar you can spare should be used to buy War Bonds. Buy your ten percent every pay day.

Oops, Maybe That's No Ham Sandwich!

Have you seen any unignited flares, monkey wrenches, or ham sandwiches falling from airplanes lately?

All right, laugh if you will, but a farmer in a California county saw something fall from an airplane into a field. He picked up the object, which turned out to be an unignited flare, and brought it to the civilian defense headquarters in the nearest town.

Although the unignited flare caused no particular danger, civilian defense officials pointed out that it might easily have been a hand grenade or a fragment of a bomb, which might explode when picked up.

Any person who finds such an object should not attempt to decide whether or not it is dangerous, but should notify the nearest air raid warden.

Telephone Co. Praises Customers

Acknowledgement of the splendid cooperation shown by telephone users in helping the telephone industry to meet unprecedented wartime demands in the face of restrictions necessary to save materials vital to the war was expressed today by N. R. Powley, president of The Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company, in a report covering the coast-wide operations of the company during the first six months of 1942.

Copy of the report was received here today by Lyle M. Brown, division manager of the company, who stated that it also showed that more than 1300 telephone employees are now in military service and that 97 per cent of the coast-wide personnel is purchasing United States War Savings Bonds through the payroll allotment plan.

The telephone president's report said in part:

"Our company in its all-out war effort, through its resources, facilities and personnel is earnestly engaged throughout all branches of its work in playing its full, effective and patriotic part to take our country through to Victory.

"The heavy demand for telephone service continues. The co-operation and expressed sympathetic understanding of our customers regarding the magnitude and importance of the problem with which we are confronted in handling with dispatch the communications directly concerned with the armed forces and the war emergency work make it possible for us to be of the maximum service to our nation and the communities and customers we have the privilege of serving."

Zealand and Australia when she cleared San Francisco, November 29, eight days before the attack on Pearl Harbor.

On New Year's day, the Malama signaled in the vicinity of Tahiti a short crackling radio message:

"Being followed by unidentified plane."

A few hours later the Free French radio at Papeete picked up another terse wireless:

"Ordered to stop by unidentified plane."

That was the last heard of the ship.

The message of internment was relayed here by the International Red Cross. While it said all crew members were safe, it did not say whether the Japanese had sunk the ship or put a prize crew aboard and worked her in to a Jap port.

Smith attended local schools before going to sea for the first time ten years ago. He has a first engineer's rating.

Water Department Stops Night Service

Commencing during the month of July, the Daly City Water department in the city hall will discontinue the service of keeping the water office open at night once a month for the payment of bills.

The office was open on the Thursday before the fifteenth day of each month at night, but Arthur J. Bodien, water superintendent, said that the evening period was unnecessary.

Veteran Firemen Conduct Funeral Rites

Funeral services were held for Henry Elmers, 65, former resident of Daly City, at a Burlingame mortuary, Saturday afternoon, at 2 p. m.

Services were under the auspices of the Daly City Veteran Firemen's association of which Elmers was a member.

He joined the association, August 2, 1907, as a charter member of Vista Grande Volunteer Fire department, later called Company No. 2. He retired from the department, February, 13, 1929, after twenty-one and a half years of service.

Members who participated in the services included: A. N. Lang, past president; J. E. Kester, vice-president; H. W. A. Rickmann,

DANGEROUS HOLIDAY

Independence Day has long been the most dangerous of holidays for Americans, reports the Public Safety Department of the National Automobile club, in urging all to use greater care in their celebrations. Automobile accidents and drownings are high on the list of causes of death over this week-end. Such loss of life can be prevented if all will use greater care in their July Fourth activities. Motorists are warned against driving too far and too fast. Swimmers are warned not to swim too far or dive into strange waters.

chaplain; Fred Hanson, first past president; F. Mickelson, J. Hesslein, E. A. Pfuhl, and Harry Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. A. Rickmann, 421 San Diego avenue, were also present at the services.

YIELD RIGHT OF WAY

"Go ahead, soldier." Observance of this slogan by motorists when meeting army convoys on highways and streets was urged today by the California State Automobile association, acting at the request of military authorities.

Civilian drivers are asked to readily yield the right of way to convoys and to follow certain rules designed for protection of motorists as well as the army. The suggested rules are:

1. Don't break through Army motor columns.
2. Don't pass and then try to cut in front. Convoys are deceptively fast.
3. When you pass, don't cut back into the convoy lane.
4. Obey traffic police—civilian and military.

SHAKING PUBLIC MORALE

One cardinal principle of our kind of government is that public officials should treat the people with perfect frankness. American citizens are entitled to all the facts, except those which constitute actual military secrets. Are the American people being accorded frankness? The gasoline and automobile situation raises this question.

The American motorist is completely up in the air as to the future of car transportation. He has heard countless varying reports. He has read conflicting statement after conflicting statement from high Washington officials. He is told, on the one hand, that gasoline rationing is necessary because of lack of various means of transportation makes it impossible to deliver normal supplies. He then hears that the storage tanks are running over with gasoline even in rationed areas, and that civilian consumption is really being reduced in order to conserve tires and cars. Next he reads an official statement that the government may soon have to requisition his tires and his car. Before the ink is dry on that report, he hears over the radio that such drastic action is not contemplated. Then to top it off, the next news report from Washington says it is hoped that experiments now under way will produce a tire that will keep the cars rolling, etc., etc.

The citizen is lost in a welter of confusion. He doesn't know whether he is going to have gas or even a car next week or next month or next season. He doesn't know whether the synthetic rubber and the rubber-reclaiming programs are going well or badly. And nothing is harder on public morale than this kind of indecision, because it undermines confidence in leadership and governmental management.

The American people don't want to be pampered. They are sending their boys to war and financing its cost to preserve liberty at home. They don't want to be treated like children. They don't want to be kept in the dark concerning matters vital to their welfare. What they do want is for their government to tell them the truth, explain the facts, adopt only policies which are in accord with true conditions, and stick to those policies.

Reading & Writing

By Edwin Seaver and Robin McKown

Napoleon only had 32 degrees below zero to deal with in Russia. Hitler wailed in his last address to his Reichstag; the Nazis had 54 degrees to contend with. But the Russians were amused, for they knew it was the Red Army even more than the Red Winter that had set Hitler back on his heels.

Now we have an excellent historical work by a distinguished Soviet scholar, Eugene Tarle, showing that it was more than General Winter that cracked down on Napoleon as well. It's titled, "Napoleon's Invasion of Russia" and it furnishes a surprising number of parallels to recent events, even though the author wrote his book long before June 1941.

Napoleon, like Hitler, tried first to make an ally of the Russians, and then suddenly and treacherously attacked them. Like Hitler, too, he dreamed of making Russia an instrument for further conquests, and like the Fuehrer, he was dismayed to find that at some points his opponents were better equipped than he. His losses too, astonished him no less than Hitler's astonished the Nazis. But most of all, Napoleon, like Hitler, found that he had a people's war on his hands and that the enemy was not just at the front but all around him, a far more terrible adversary than the bitter cold.

By coincidence, Tarle's book appears at the same time that there is a tremendous revival of interest in Tolstoy's epic novel, "War and Peace," which also deals with Napoleon's ill-fated invasion of Russia in 1812. Never was a great classic more timely. As Clifton Fadiman says in his forward to the new edition, which the Book-of-the-Month Club is sending out to its members as a book-dividend: "In a certain sense it may be said that the finest account of Hitler's Russian venture (so far) was written by Tolstoy."

Offhand, you wouldn't say that love and kisses play any part in making airplanes, but Dickey Meyer in her book "Needed—Women in Aviation," tells a story in which they were incidental in saving a human life. An American pilot had to fly a good distance through anti-aircraft gunfire and one of his wings was badly damaged. On the long homeward journey the strain on that wing grew too great, and gradually the fabric covering it split. Minute by minute the tear grew larger. Then, suddenly, the ripping stopped. When the pilot had reached a safe landing, his first act was to examine the crippled wing. Just where the tear ended, he found that the fabric had been stitched extremely carefully and thoroughly. It was those few extra knotted stitches that had prevented the bomber from cracking. He unraveled the stitching and there found a hidden message: "To the pilot who will fly this plane, all good wishes, love and kisses." The note was signed "Sheila."

George Palmer Putnam, the publisher, says that frequently he has been asked by authors: "How many copies of my book do you expect to sell?" Naturally, he writes in his autobiography, "Wide Margins," that question very much interests authors. It does publishers, too. And it is impossible to answer: "My own standard reply was to ask another question, 'How long is a piece of string?'"

George E. Smith, 5982 Mission street, a retired merchant succumbed, last Wednesday, to a heart attack in San Francisco. He was well-known in this neighborhood where he had lived for 44 years.

Father Of Local Man Succumbs To Attack

Bartłomi Wierzbicki, 57, succumbed to a heart attack at the home of his son, John Wierzbicki, 267 Miriam street, last Wednesday. He was a Placerville rancher.

In addition to his son he is survived by his widow, Mrs. Katherine Wierzbicki, two other children, Mrs. Agnes Norry and Henry Wierzbicki; his mother, Mrs. Joseph Wierzbicki; and three sisters and a brother.

Funeral services were held, Friday morning, from a downtown mortuary. Requiem mass was celebrated at 9:30 a. m. at Our Lady of Perpetual Help church. Interment was at Holy Cross cemetery, Colma.

Types Of Gases

By Dr. Ward L. Mould, Medical Gas Officer, U. S. Office of Civilian Defense.

(This is the second of six articles about war gases, their characteristics, and the measures the civilian can take to protect himself against gas injury.)

Some of the war gases are liquids at ordinary temperatures. As evaporation takes place, the vapors given off may cause injury to those in the neighborhood. Some of the gases may "contaminate" an area for several days or even weeks, depending upon the weather. They will evaporate more rapidly if the weather is hot. Such gases are known as "persistent" gases.

Other war gases are released as vapors or evaporate almost at once. They are quickly acted upon by currents and eddies of air which rapidly break up the gas cloud. Such gases are said to be "non-persistent."

Each group is composed of several members but all war gases have one characteristic in common. So that they will remain close to the ground, they are all heavier than air. In addition, all known war gases act either on the skin or the lungs, or both.

There have been wide-spread rumors of new all-powerful gases, against which there would be no protection, or against which our present gas masks would be ineffective. Such reports are without basis in fact. There are many gases commonly used in industry which are more injurious than any of the known war gases but none are suitable for use as war gases in the open. The gas mask developed for the U. S. Army is a versatile piece of equipment; it is doubtful if any war gas will be developed against which it will prove ineffective.

The soldier in the field cannot leave his post or seek shelter if gas is used against him. To do so would permit the enemy to advance through his lines. The civilian, on the other hand, if gas is used, can take shelter in such a way as to eliminate most of the danger. Even after contact with gas the exposed person can do a few simple things for himself which will in most instances prevent serious injury if carried out promptly. These procedures will be discussed in a later article in this series.

SAVE YOUR CAR

Motorists who see cars damaged as the result of an accident, should learn a double lesson, states the Public Safety Department of the National Automobile club. If drivers would picture their own cars as twisted wrecks, they will more vividly realize the dangers of reckless driving. To avoid driving oneself into an accident, is to avoid grief, expense and worry. Equally important to the majority, is that if they wreck their cars these days, they can't get a new one. Safety saves the cars to roll on the highways of Victory.

Greyhound Asks Public Cooperation

"The war effort comes first!" This announcement was made, today, by the Greyhound lines. Outlining the tremendous task faced by the transportation companies, Greyhound sought public cooperation.

Officials said, "More people want to ride the buses than ever before, and there are fewer buses because of the large numbers assigned by Greyhound to government service."

Greyhound patrons who are not war workers nor military personnel were asked to make trips as short as possible; to travel only during midweek, Tuesday to Thursday; to carry as little baggage as possible; to be lenient if there is inconvenience and delay; to postpone any trip they can.

The company pointed out that the pleasant days of travel "as usual" will come again, but right now the war job comes first.

Daly City Student Attends Boys State

Representing Jefferson Union high school and this community at Boys State, June 20-27, was John Mosman, 232 Hillcrest drive. Mosman had been chosen to attend the American Legion sponsored event at Davis, California, because of his outstanding record for character, leadership, citizenship and scholarship. His trip was made possible by Daly City Post No. 410 and Brisbane Post No. 473, American Legion.

Word received, Friday, from the headquarters at Boys State reported that Mosman had been appointed police chief by the Crockett city council. The appointment was part of the program whereby the boys in attendance set up model city and state governments and thereby learn by doing just how civic responsibilities are met.

Mosman will be a member of the senior class at Jefferson next fall.

A Grand Patriotic Concert for USO was staged, Sunday, at Marchbank park by the Daly City Band. George Brenner, conductor, directed the band in a program of patriotic airs and a number of special features. Miss Alba Canale, popular soloist, rendered a pair of patriotic songs, and there were several addresses. Ted Gifford, publicity director for the USO, made a short talk; Mayor A. J. Gaggero and Councilman John J. Fahey sr. gave addresses, and William P. Bolger, chairman of the USO committee, expressed thanks to local citizens for their support of the campaign.

The national drive officially ends, Saturday.

Daly City Gets 75 More Masks

(Continued from Page 1) shortage in first aid instructors to teach the courses. Although no classes have yet been abandoned, there is a serious shortage, and all who have been certified as first aid instructors are urged to volunteer to take classes. Crane said that much of the shortage is due to vacations at this particular time of the year.

It is not likely that the local council will be awarded additional helmets, it was announced this week, since helmet supplies have been frozen.

Lions And Ladies Enjoy Dinner Dance

Lions and their ladies had such a gala time at the dinner dance, held in honor of the ladies at Ye Old Colonial Inn, last Wednesday, that three attempts to end the dance were unsuccessful.

Three times the members of the Daly City-Colma Lions club were ready to go home, and three times somebody said "Let's dance some more!", so the dancing continued. Ladies Night has been a popular feature of the local Lions organization's social calendar for some time.

Colliding Autos Hit Chief's House

You'd think your car would be safe in your own garage, but Fire Chief Andrew P. Chesney isn't so sure, any more.

An automobile driven by Mrs. Rose C. Nelson, 663 Crocker avenue, Daly City, and a bakery truck driven by Louis Casalegno, San Francisco, collided at Crocker avenue and Winchester street, Thursday morning, and then crashed into his residence.

In addition to damaging the garage and front portion of his house, the cars smashed into the rear of his car.

Virginia Nelson, 5, daughter of Mrs. Nelson, had several teeth knocked out and was bruised and cut. Mrs. Nelson and Casalegno were bruised and shaken.

Later the couple will go to State college, Pennsylvania, to see Mrs. Ferguson's son, Dr. R. G. Bernreuter, professor of psychology.

Traffic Accidents Injure Nine Persons

Julianne Landi, 4, riding in one car, were treated for minor bruises. Driving the other machine, Hugh Zimmerman, San Francisco, escaped injuries, but the other occupants of the car were treated at Villa hospital: Frances Milburn, San Francisco, received a shoulder injury, concussion, and numerous abrasions; Jeremiah Sheehy, San Francisco, incurred superficial cuts on the hand; Mrs. Neva Sheehy, his wife, suffered from contusions on the head; and Eleanor Donovan, San Francisco, was treated for shock.

Elmer Sukanen, San Francisco, suffered from a severe skull fracture when he jumped from a moving car on Mission street, early Sunday morning. He was taken to Villa hospital in the city first aid truck.

While riding a bicycle near the corner of Los Banos and San Diego avenues, Monday afternoon, Paul Galliano, 9, 238 Los Banos avenue, was struck by an automobile driven by Robert Statton, San Francisco. The Galliano boy was treated for shock at Villa hospital, but no injuries were found.

Two other accidents in Daly City resulted in property damage only. Henry F. Lampshire, San Francisco, and George W. Claus, 95 Theta avenue, were involved in a collision at Mission street and Wellington avenue. The other accident involved Anthony Peter Lucher, 183 Miriam street, and Earl Pritchard, Denver, Colorado.

MOTHERS

Here's Easy Way To Provide Lunch

If Daly City mothers want to have a vacation from getting that noon lunch ready for hungry children, there is "an answer to a busy mother's prayer" at the Jefferson Union high school cafeteria.

Give the children a nickel apiece and send them to the cafeteria, and they can get a nourishing meal, enough to satisfy hearty appetites for a strenuous afternoon of play. The meals are cooked by a group of experienced cooks, and the menu is changed each day.

The lunch program at the high school is sponsored by the Surplus Marketing administration and Jefferson Union high school. Mrs. Grace Nelson supervises the program and plans the menus each day. She is aided by a group of ladies supplied by the WPA.

Hot dishes feature each meal, and the children get plenty of vegetables fresh from the Victory garden on the high school grounds.

Pointing out Monday's menu and the plans for the Tuesday menu, Mrs. Nelson said that new potatoes, grown in the high school garden, were served to the children. She said that the ladies will begin canning jams and jellies for serving as soon as the fruit begins to come in.

Lunches are served from Monday through Friday between the hours of 11:30 a. m. to 1 p. m.

Youngsters Enjoy Picnic At G. G. Park

Over fifty local youngsters had a big time at a picnic, yesterday, at Golden Gate park, sponsored by the Daly City WPA Recreation department and the Women's Civic Club.

Games were played and prizes were given to winners at the picnic.

Only one game is booked for baseball at Marchbank field, Sunday, when the Daly City Farallone Packers will play the Frank Newman club at 2:30 p. m. The game is part of the Daly City WPA Recreation department's athletic program.

Please Remember...
WARTIME TRAVEL
is not "As Usual"

The pleasant days of travel "as usual" will come again. But right now the war job comes first—and the traveling public must expect some inconvenience and delay. Greyhound is cooperating fully with the Office of Defense Transportation in Washington, D. C., to provide essential service for all those who must keep rolling to keep America rolling—selectees, fighting men and war workers.

THIS NECESSITATES:

- Operating only essential service.
- Eliminating extra buses if not sufficiently loaded.
- Reducing operating speed and eliminating fast, limited schedules.
- Establishing cooperative service with other companies over certain routes to reduce bus mileage.
- Conserving rubber and other vital materials by the above and other means.

HOW YOU CAN HELP:

- Make your trips short—as close to home as possible.
- Travel only during mid-week—Tuesday to Thursday. Week-end travel is congested by military personnel and war workers.
- Carry as little baggage as possible.
- Be lenient if there is any inconvenience, delay or crowding.
- Think twice before taking any trip—postpone it if you can.
- Buy U.S. War Bonds and Stamps.

THE WAR EFFORT COMES FIRST!

ularly in the San Francisco-San Mateo counties area.

Rubber which is termed "non-essential" will be sought during the next ten days. After expressing disappointment at results in the national drive, President Roosevelt extended the time until July 10 for citizens to gather all unnecessary rubber and take it to service stations.

All service stations in Daly City are rubber collection depots. Go through those attics, those basements, and those clothes closets and gather up that rubber. There are hot water bottles, old tennis shoes, worn out rubber boots, and thousands of other articles containing rubber which can be used for war production.

Service stations will pay a penny a pound for rubber which is turned over to them.

R. L. Crane jr., local chairman, said that Daly City rubber collections reached a total of 36,104 pounds, up to 2 p. m. Monday.

Crocker PTA Meets At Mrs. Pauw's

Regular meeting of the executive board for the month of June and the semi-monthly sewing session of Crocker P. T. A., were held at the home of Mrs. Orvilla Pauw, 839 Hanover street, Thursday.

Mrs. Emma D'Isep, chairman of the graduation luncheon, reported that a chicken luncheon was served to 29 graduates and Miss Aileen Suber, principal, Tuesday, June 16. After her report, Mrs. D'Isep thanked her committee, Mrs. Hazel Cassasa, Mrs. Mildred Seiler, and Mrs. Sarah Nordgren for their help; Mrs. John Kinsey, Mrs. Leo Brandt, Mrs. Getha Mejia and Mrs. Arthur Sadler, for furnishing the cakes; and Mrs. Frances Anderson for the use of her home.

Mrs. Olga Bordson, chairman of the room mothers, announced the following women as being appointed to the various rooms: Mrs. Nordgren, Miss Suber's room; Mrs. Bordson, Miss Irene Smith's room; Mrs. Virginia Davidson, Mrs. Frances Gustafson's room; Mrs. Pansey Montano, Mrs. Edna Hick's room; Mrs. Cassasa, Miss Grace Kearny's room.

The budget for the unit from June 1, 1942 to May 31, 1943, was presented to the members by Mrs. Vivian Pahlka, chairman. Plans were also discussed, at that time, for the unit's participation in the Civilian Defense parade, scheduled for Sunday, September 13.

Among the many activities planned by the group for the month of July include a luncheon and sewing session at the home of Mrs. Lyl Ingersoll, 439 Crocker avenue, 11 a. m., Thursday, July 9. Proceeds are to go to help fill the sewing fund and general treasuries.

A luncheon will be held at the "Bit of Sweden," Tuesday, July 21. Anyone wishing to attend this luncheon should get in touch with Mrs. Cassasa, Delaware 10064, as the place of meeting may be changed.

The group's combination picnic and executive board meeting has been set for Thursday morning, July 30, at Fleishhacker playground. The members are all cordially invited to attend with their friends and children.

SALMON DINNER FOR A BANG-UP FOURTH

Your family will call this an extra-special holiday treat when they taste juicy salmon steaks, delicately browned and served with fresh buttered peas in toasted bread cups.

You'll say it's Independence Day in the kitchen when you see how this purer shortening—Spry—fries without any smoke or unpleasant odor. Notice also how very easy it is to make toasted, golden bread cups right in your muffin pans. You'll use these crispy bread cups for creamed fish, meat and vegetables, too, so clip the recipe and keep it handy.

Salmon Steaks

2 pounds fresh salmon steak, cut 1 inch thick
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1/2 teaspoon paprika
1/2 cup Spry

Remove skin and bones from salmon and cut into serving pieces. Mix flour and seasonings thoroughly. Dip pieces of salmon in seasoned flour and fry in hot Spry until golden brown on both sides. Serve with fresh buttered peas in Toasted Bread Cups. Serves 6.

Toasted Bread Cups

8 slices bread
1/2 cup Spry, melted
Trim crusts from bread. Dip slices in melted Spry and press firmly into muffin pans. Bake in very hot oven (450° F.) 12 minutes, or until brown.

Foresters Announce Tuesday Night Whist

Whist players have been cordially invited by members of Vista Grande Circle No. 253, Ancient Order of Foresters, to attend their monthly whist, Tuesday evening. Playing will begin at 8:45 p. m. at Linhares hall, 167 Los Banos avenue.

Mrs. Lena Hutchings, chairman of the evening, announces many attractive prizes are being procured and a cash first award will be given. Assisting Mrs. Hutchings with the arrangements will be other ladies of the organization.

The office is located in the city hall. Mrs. Ann Eason is in charge of the Daly City Consumer Information center, and she is assisted by members of the Women's Civic club.

The baby is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Bodien, 28 Rice street, and Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Davis, 201 Citrus avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Sundstrom, 174 Crocker avenue, are the child's godparents.

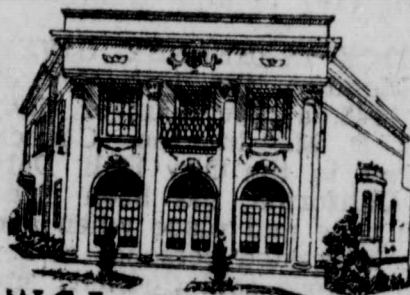

The long christening dress worn by LeRoy was made sixty years ago by his great-grandmother. The dress has been used on many occasions for various members of Mrs. Bodien's family.

Novel Desserts Appeal

By Frances Lee Barton

NOW that more and more people are becoming accustomed to dining in restaurants, hotels and dining cars, we find it more difficult to decide upon a dessert. These people have learned something about unusual desserts of delicious flavor.

They have come to the point where they anticipate something out of the ordinary for the final "bite."

Below you will find a recipe for a novel ice cream dessert. There are a combination of flavors—and the whole is unusual. Try it when company comes.

Pineapple Coconut Ice Cream
1 can vanilla liquid ice cream mix; 1/2 cup canned pineapple juice; 1/2 cup canned crushed pineapple, drained; 1 cup cream, whipped; 1/2 can moist, sweetened coconut, chopped.

Combine ice cream mix, pineapple juice, and pineapple in bowl. Fold in cream. Turn into freezing tray of automatic refrigerator, setting control for coldest freezing temperature. Stir thoroughly once after first 1/2 hour of freezing and add coconut. Freezing time: 2 1/2 to 3 hours. Makes about 1 quart ice cream.

Note: If stronger coconut flavor is desired, toast coconut before chopping.

At the girls' meeting, held recently, they voted to contribute $5 to the local U. S. O. drive.

Meetings during the months of July and August have been adjourned. First meeting of the fall term will be held, Saturday afternoon, September 5.

Royal Neighbors Entertained At Dinner

Mrs. H. H. Smith sr., San Mateo, entertained members of the sewing club of Vista Grande Camp No. 6035, Royal Neighbors of America, at a dinner party, Tuesday evening, June 23.

Those attending the affair included: Mrs. Clarise Scott, Mrs. Lucy Nelson, Mrs. Esther Meritt, Mrs. Marie Rucker, Mrs. Anna Romer, Mrs. Grace Coolish, Mrs. Mattie Putnam, Mrs. Esther Peterson, Mrs. Lyla Thery, Mrs. Emilie Twisten, Mrs. Agnes Wood, Mrs. Cinderella Weller, Mrs. Johanna Hedvall, Mrs. Sylvia Henze. Guests present included Mrs. Lillian Landini, Mrs. Evelyn Smith and Irene Smith.

After dinner was served, members and guests attended the business meeting which was presided over by President Mrs. Scott.

Whist was enjoyed at the close of the meeting. Mrs. Twisten received first prize.

The ladies presented Mrs. Smith with a lovely vase for her new home.

Next meeting of the sewing group will be held, Tuesday, July 28, at the home of Mrs. Henze, San Francisco.

Simple Yet Tasty

By Frances Lee Barton

TODAY the salad appears daily on millions of tables where it was a rarity years ago. We are salad conscious, not only because the salad tastes good, but because it is good for our health.

But some of us get into salad ruts. We serve sliced tomatoes on lettuce time after time. Or perhaps our particular "make-shift" is "prunes and cheese" or a waldorf salad. All good, but no salad should be served all the time. Variety in the salad course is as important as it is in the meat course or the dessert.

Here's a salad recipe for your consideration. This tasty is inexpensive to make, easy to prepare, and delicious to eat.

Pimiento Salad

1 package lemon-flavored gelatin; 1 pint hot water; 2 tablespoons chopped pimiento; 4 tablespoons chopped sweet pickle.

Dissolve gelatin in hot water. Place 1 teaspoon chopped pimiento and 2 teaspoons chopped pickle in each individual mold. Turn gelatin into molds and chill until firm. Unmold on crisp lettuce. Garnish with mayonnaise. Serves 6.

To Hold Whist Tonight

The monthly whist of Court St. Mary, No. 1155, C. D. A., will be held at 8:30 p. m. at Masonic hall, tonight.

Miss Christina Leubker is chairlady for the evening and announces that a large basket of groceries will be awarded in addition to the usual attractive prizes.

A short meeting will precede the whist game. Mrs. Virginia Rengstorff, grand regent, will call the meeting to order at 7:30 p. m. sharp. She asked all members to attend as matters of importance have to be discussed and acted upon.

These Youngsters Were Patriotic!

Setting a mark for their parents and other elders to shoot at, students of the Jefferson District grammar schools purchased over $3,000 worth of War Savings bonds and stamps before school was closed, according to recent figures at the district office.

In four months of buying the bonds and stamps, students in six schools in the district purchased $3251.99, thus displaying a fine example of patriotism and war effort in dollars and cents—the kind of effort that really counts. Even the primary schools in the district joined in the drive.

Monthly totals for purchases show that in March, the opening month, they purchased $811.30 worth of savings bonds and stamps. In April, they set a record with a total of $884.50. The figure went down during May to $698.74, but the schools were closed during four days of May for sugar rationing registration in Daly City. In June, the last month of school, they came back strong, buying $857.45 worth of war savings stamps and bonds in a period which did not include a full month.

Take It With You!

Keep a cake of ordinary soap and a bottle of water handy at all times—for the duration. If possible, carry them with you. And, keep soap and water in your automobile.

This was the advice issued to Californians today by the State Council of Defense, as a precautionary measure for prompt first aid in the event mustard gas should be sprayed over coastal target areas by enemy raiders.

Mustard gas can be detected by the odor—usually smelling like garlic, horseradish or mustard. Upon detecting the presence of mustard gas, the council warned, citizens should immediately get out of the path of the oncoming liquid or vapor fumes.

"Immediately apply the soap and water treatment to any part of the skin which the gas might touch. If you have a gas mask, use it," the council said.

Ice Follies Plan Second Matinee

A second special matinee performance of the dazzling Ice Follies of 1942, now showing nightly at Winterland, in San Francisco, will be held, Saturday afternoon, July 11, it was announced this week. The daytime show was set in response to hundreds of requests, the management stated.

Night showings of the spectacular ice revue continued this week to attract capacity audiences. The great cast of international skating stars and beauties are seen in an entirely new production already acclaimed from coast to coast.

Frances Claudet, brilliant young Canadian star of Shipstad and Johnson's Ice Follies of 1942, displays her championship skill in sensational routines in the dazzling blade revue each night and also in her position as "coach" to those amazing precision skaters the Ice Follies.

In the course of her teaching duties, Fran learns and masters the steps of almost every performer in the show. In addition, she masters her own difficult routine with partner Osborne Colson.

As teacher, Fran combines great skill with infinite patience and sparkling originality. She is former Canadian figure skating champion and was a member of the Canadian Olympic team in 1932. In 1936 she won the gold medal, the highest possible award in figure skating.
